

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of sharia law

---

1. Since the Taliban's takeover, practically all women's shelters in Afghanistan have closed. Safe houses have vanished, cutting off a key escape route for women and girls fleeing domestic violence, sexual violence, and forced marriages.

Source= <https://mobile.twitter.com/FrudBezhan/status/1442202868996579330>

Human Rights under Taliban

---

1. Ramin Samadzada, a friend of Javeed Ahwar's, and his freinds occupied the Afghan Embassy in Belgium to protest the Taliban's assumption of power in Kabul and to ask for help for the #PanjshirResistance.

Source= <https://mobile.twitter.com/JaveedAhwar/status/1442448751101153283>

2. According to Trump's former national security adviser John Bolton, the Taliban might have access to up to 150 Pakistani nuclear weapons following America's disastrous exit from Afghanistan.

Source= <https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-10032795/The-Taliban-hands-150-nuclear-weapons-says-John-Bolton.html>

3. At Helmand province and Kabul, Afghanistan, the Taliban has banned hair clipping in saloons.

Source= <https://twitter.com/MuntasirSarkar/status/1442490844863508483?s=08>

4. Despite the mistreatment of Afghan women and human rights violations by Taliban, Pakistan FM Shah Mahmood Qureshi thinks that Afghanistan is in a better & stable state under Taliban's regime than it was under the previous democratically elected government.

Source= <https://twitter.com/AfricaAsiaNews/status/1442494707276279812?s=08>

5. Armed Kochis, nomad Pashtuns, have threatened roughly 200 households in Ghamqool village of Khedir district in central Daikundi province, requesting that they leave their homes and fields, according to residents.

Source= <https://kabulnow.af/2021/09/armed-kochis-threaten-200-households-in-daikundi-to-leave-their-lands/>

Current Situation

---

1. The Taliban administration has raided the Bamiyan Museum. As a result, they have defaced and destroyed a number of archaeological artefacts relating to Bamiyan's history.

Source= <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1442383303030370308>

21th September 2021

2. Terrorists are slain every day and night in various sections of the country as a result of guerrilla attacks. They have vowed to withhold news of the terrorists' deaths from the media.
Source= <https://twitter.com/HameedN03312601/status/1442467433000759298>
3. Pakistan's government proposes that the international community construct a road plan that leads to diplomatic recognition of the Taliban with incentives if they meet the standards and then meet face to face with the militia's leaders to work out the details.
Source= <https://www.khaleejtimes.com/world/dont-isolate-the-taliban-engage-with-them-pakistan>
4. There is nothing but Taliban obstructing the road since there is no food without Taliban.
Source= <https://twitter.com/kashmiriRefuge/status/1442490341303541767?s=08>
5. With its animosity for the Afghan people, the Taliban is destroying itself. With the fascist support of mediaeval crimes and sadism, the Taliban are attempting to control all of Afghanistan's people by force and intimidation. The Afghan people will repay the Taliban by joining the ranks of the Popular Resistance Front as a result of their acts.
Source= https://twitter.com/Shilov\_A\_N/status/1442488768431149059?s=08
6. Twitter has removed the blue verification badge from the Twitter accounts of the Foreign Ministry, Defence Ministry, Interior Ministry, Presidential Palace and National Procurement Authority, Pajhwok Afghan News reported on Sunday.
Source= <https://zeenews.india.com/world/twitter-removes-blue-verification-badge-from-accounts-of-taliban-ministries-2397473.html>
7. Iran has retained substantial influence in its eastern neighbour throughout the US conflict in Afghanistan. It supported both sides of the conflict, forging ties with the Taliban while also supporting the now-deposed government in Kabul. With the Taliban seizing control of the country following the withdrawal of US and NATO soldiers, Tehran will work with the militant group pragmatically to protect and advance its national security strategy.
Source= <https://newlinesinstitute.org/afghanistan/irans-strategy-in-afghanistan-pragmatic-engagement-with-the-taliban/>
8. The Turkic Council's foreign ministers convened in Istanbul to examine the situation in Afghanistan, where the Taliban has taken power. On November 12, the heads of state of the organisation will meet.
Source= <https://twitter.com/TRTWorldRC/status/1442489222342926343?s=08>
9. President Erdogan has stated that Turkey will not take over the management of Kabul airport unless the Taliban forms a multi-faction and multi-ethnic government. Turkey would not enter Afghanistan until the question of a complete government is settled, according to him.
Source= <https://twitter.com/KabulChronicle/status/1442488958471000065?s=08>

10. For years, the Red Mosque in Pakistan's capital has been a bastion of religious disobedience, a nerve centre of extreme Islamist preaching that has drew hundreds of worshippers to hear its veteran pro-Taliban leader, Maulana Abdul Aziz, deliver rabble-rousing lectures.

Source= https://www.washingtonpost.com/world/asia\_pacific/pakistan-red-mosque-taliban/2021/09/24/e6d0c0ec-1b50-11ec-bea8-308ea134594f\_story.html

11. According to Khaama News, Miao claims that at least 17 Taliban acting ministers are so-called "terrorists" who are unable to recognise their regime. Despite the fact that the Taliban have been in power for nearly 45 days, no country in the world has recognised them.

Source= <https://thenewsmen.co.in/world/italy-says-impossible-to-recognize-taliban-govt/51733>

12. Only two nations, Pakistan and Afghanistan, have wild polio virus outbreaks. The world looks on the Taliban to do the job after weeks of political turmoil. The global battle to eradicate polio has resulted in a significant reduction in the number of cases of the deadly illness. There were 350,000 cases of wild polio virus (WPV) in 125 countries in 1988. Last year, 139 confirmed cases were reported, all of which occurred in Pakistan and Afghanistan.

Source= <https://www.vaccinestoday.eu/stories/polio-in-afghanistan-can-the-taliban-deliver-eradication/>

13. In the northern and central areas of Kapisa province (marked blue), notably in Deh Baba Ali, there have been many reports of either NRF strike teams or former independent militias fighting against the Taliban.

Source= <https://twitter.com/RealLarsJohmann/status/1442461638393696267?s=08>

14. Afghanistan's acting Deputy Information Minister, Zabihullah Mujahid, praised Pakistan's efforts in the country. Pakistan, he noted, has been a strong supporter of multilateral cooperation with Afghanistan. Afghanistan desires strong ties with the international community, as well as stronger commercial and economic ties. He further stated that Pakistan was the first country in the world community to give assistance.

Source= <https://thediplomaticinsight.com/afghan-deputy-information-minister-praises-pakistan/>

15. After the ambassador representing the government ousted by the Taliban, who was scheduled to speak on Monday, withdrew his name, no representative from Afghanistan will address the annual high-level United Nations General Assembly in New York.

Source= <https://www.reuters.com/article/us-afghanistan-conflict-un/no-one-from-afghanistan-will-address-world-leaders-at-u-n-idUSKBN2GN1C0>

16. The United States invested $145 billion in Afghanistan over two decades to transform one of the world's poorest countries into a self-sustaining economy, the most ambitious undertaking in Western nation-building this century. That initiative was unsuccessful.

Source= <https://www.wsj.com/articles/u-s-spent-billions-on-afghanistan-and-failed-to-build-a-sustainable-economy-11632735001>

21th September 2021

17. Tajik militants who fought alongside the Taliban in Afghanistan are now planning to cross the border into Tajikistan, according to officials in Dushanbe. Tajik officials are evaluating evidence from multiple sources indicating militants are planning infiltrations from northern Afghanistan, according to a representative from Tajikistan's Border Service, a component of the State National Security Committee.

Source= https://www.rferl.org/amp/tajikistan-concerned-taliban-plots/31477716.html?\_twitter\_impression=true&s=08