

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of sharia law

---

1. Taliban are forcibly displacing Shia Afghans. This guy claims he has lived here for more than 50 years, and the Taliban have given them three to four days to remove their possessions, after which they can only leave with the clothes on their backs.
Source: <https://twitter.com/ediwas87/status/1443794537562836994?s=08>
2. Girls from Afghanistan's youth football team have appealed to the UK for immediate asylum after fleeing to Pakistan last month to avoid Taliban assassination attempts. One of the teenage footballers, speaking for the first time about their predicament, told Sky News that the group's Pakistani visas are running out and that she is concerned about what would happen if they are forced to return home.
Source= <https://news.sky.com/story/if-you-can-accept-us-we-would-be-really-happy-young-afghan-footballers-plead-to-be-accepted-as-refugees-12423578>

Human Rights under Taliban

---

3. According to one of the Afghan International audience members from the province in the film, Taliban fighters are arresting and torturing individuals. The soldiers have begun house-to-house inspections, according to this reply.
Source= <https://twitter.com/afintlbrk/status/1444243341684662273>
4. They were pioneers in the fight for women's rights in Afghanistan. They were adamant defenders of the law, demanding justice for the poorest citizens of their society. However, over 220 female Afghan judges have fled the country for fear of retaliation under Taliban rule. From hidden locations around Afghanistan, six former female judges spoke to the BBC. For their safety, all of their names have been changed.
Source= <https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-58709353>
5. According to local and international sources, children are dying of starvation in Afghanistan, prompting predictions that a million children could face life-threatening malnutrition by the end of the year. In Ghor, one of the impacted provinces, at least 17 children have died from starvation in the previous six months, according to Mullah Mohammad Ahmadi, the province's public health director.
Source= https://www.rte.ie/news/world/2021/1002/1250346-afghanistan/?utm\_source=dlvr.it&utm\_medium=twitter
6. Two Taliban fighters and two civilians were shot and murdered by gunmen in the eastern city of Jalalabad on Saturday, according to a Taliban official. According to Mohammad Hanif, a cultural authority for the city's adjacent province, Nangarhar, two more people were injured in the incident.

Source= https://www.dailymail.co.uk/wires/ap/article-10052465/Gunmen-kill-2-Taliban-2-civilians-eastern-Afghan-city.html?ns\_mchannel=rss&ns\_campaign=1490&ito=1490

7. Despite the 'new' Taliban's commitment to respect female rights, Afghan women's new reality includes girls being denied access to education and hairdressers being stripped of their salons.

Source= https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-10050595/Afghan-womens-new-reality-includes-girls-barred-education-hairdressers-robbed-salons.html?ns\_mchannel=rss&ns\_campaign=1490&ito=1490

8. More than 3,000 female Afghan troops and police officers trained by the US and UK are at danger of being tortured, imprisoned, or killed. After the Taliban took power, just about 20 people are reported to have been evacuated. Now, a British lieutenant colonel who assisted in the training of female police officers during the peak of the conflict in 2010 suspects the Taliban may have already murdered or imprisoned hundreds of women.

Source= <https://www.mirror.co.uk/news/world-news/fears-grow-3000-female-afghan-25124739>

Current Situation

---

1. The Taliban have called for negotiations with all nations and have met with Turkmenistan to discuss restarting the TAPI gas pipeline project, which was previously vital to India's ability to secure large gas supplies via land routes. "The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (IEA) seeks good ties with all nations. In a statement, Taliban Deputy Prime Minister Mullah Abdul Ghani Biradar stated, "If anyone has a problem with us, we are willing to settle it via negotiations and understanding."
Source: <https://www.tribuneindia.com/news/nation/taliban-leaders-discuss-tapi-gas-pipeline-mining-projects-318727>
2. An official announcement stated that the Taliban-led Afghan government has adopted a new security strategy for the country's eastern Nangarhar province to maintain security in the provincial capital city of Jalalabad and its surrounding districts.
Source: <https://twitter.com/sirajnoorani/status/1443851388555960322?s=08>
3. Amir Khan Muttaqi, the Taliban's foreign minister, hosted political envoys and foreign ambassadors in Kabul to convey the Taliban's desire for "good relations with the international community."
Source: <https://twitter.com/AyazGul64/status/1443614420236656645?s=08>
4. NRF killed 21 vicious Taliban militants and arrested 12 more in a guerilla operation in the Panjshir valley. Pakistani aggressors' ammunition and hundreds of weapons of war have also fallen into the hands of freedom fighters.
Source: <https://twitter.com/Afghanistanpio/status/1443915720828534792?s=08>

5. According to allegations in the media, the Taliban caretaker government's Ministry of Interior has stated that it will examine purported complaints of people being killed or tortured in Panjshir province. Qari Saeed Khosty, a spokeswoman for the ministry, said: "Following the amnesty proclaimed by the Islamic Emirate, no one is allowed to torture anybody. This is the Islamic Emirate's policy. The Islamic Emirate would strive to examine any small events that occur in select areas
"According to TOLO News.
Source: <https://thenewsmen.co.in/world/taliban-ministry-to-probe-reports-of-killing-panjshir-civilians/52217>
6. "Afghanistan's fall was based in the Taliban's 2020 pact!" said a US general. Kenneth McKenzie, the director of the US Central Command, claimed the signing of the Doha deal had a catastrophic effect on the Afghan army and government, and that the Doha agreement was at the core of the Afghan government's and army's collapse.
Source: https://mobile.twitter.com/Said\_Moosavi/status/1444188519216390144
7. To safeguard the borders, the Taliban has developed suicide border patrol units. This is focused primarily at the Afghan Tajikistan and Badakshan borders. Even if you pretend to be the government now, it may be difficult to break free from your terrorist practises.
Source= <https://twitter.com/AfghanResistnce/status/1444310591418609673>
8. It's always funny to see people who profess progressive ideals become caught up in what appears to be a drive to gain more Twitter likes on the one hand, while also destroying their claims to justice that their online persona proclaims to fight on the other.
Source= <https://savageminds.substack.com/p/the-end-of-the-forever-war>
9. Afghanistan's display remained blocked to visitors hours after the international expo fair opened in Dubai, highlighting the hurdles facing the country's new Taliban leadership.
Source= <https://www.reuters.com/article/us-emirates-expo-afghanistan/afghan-pavilion-at-dubai-world-fair-stays-shut-after-taliban-takeover-idUSKBN2GS04D>
10. H.E Mullah Abdul Latif Mansoor, Acting Minister of Water and Energy, emphasised the importance of sustainable water and convened a conference to speed up the building of the Kamal Khan and Shah Wa Arus dams.
Source= <https://twitter.com/FeedAfghanistan/status/1444310207815897099>
11. According to the public Dutch television channel NOS, local interpreters who served for the Netherlands in Afghanistan have received letters from the Taliban asking them to come before a tribunal and threatening their families. The interpreters are in hiding, but according to one of the letters seen by NOS, family members might be held liable for their acts if they fail to appear in court and could be “severely punished to teach other traitors a lesson.”

Source= <https://www.brusselstimes.com/news/187596/afghan-interpreters-summoned-to-appear-before-the-taliban/>

12. According to a speaker at a Brussels event, the Taliban's re-emergence poses a threat to the "whole world's" peace and security. The dire warning was delivered at a conference on the development of extremism in South Asia, particularly in light of the Taliban's takeover of Afghanistan.

Source= <https://www.eupoliticalreport.eu/international-community-warned-of-taliban-danger-to-security-and-peace/>

13. Prime Minister Imran Khan has indicated that conversations with some factions of the banned Tehrik-i-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) are taking place, and that he intends to include the TTP's other offshoots. “Pakistan requests TTP lay down arms,” the prime minister stated in an interview with Turkish media, adding that if the militants surrender, the government will forgive them.

Source= <https://pakobserver.net/pakistan-in-talks-with-banned-ttp-for-reconciliation/>

14. Fazal Jan Agha, also known as Hashemi Aghadi, is a playboy who serves as Kandahar's deputy security commander. Despite a Facebook post alleging that he was fired, he is still on the job.

Source= <https://twitter.com/SangarAfghan7/status/1444229778505089028>

15. According to recent media reports, the Taliban has formed an exclusive suicide bomber unit that would be deployed along Afghanistan's war-torn frontiers, particularly in Badakhshan region. Mullah Nisar Ahmad Ahmadi, the deputy governor of Afghanistan's Badakhshan province, has briefed the media about the formation of a suicide bombers' battalion in the north-eastern region, which borders Tajikistan and China, according to news agency ANI.

Source= <https://news.abplive.com/news/world/taliban-to-deploy-exclusive-battalion-of-suicide-bombers-at-afghanistan-borders-report-1485618>

16. The Biden administration is making every effort to pretend that thousands of green-card holders, who are legal US residents, were not left behind in Afghanistan, and is even more silent on the fate of America's Afghan allies, who number in the tens of thousands.

Source= <https://nypost.com/2021/10/01/team-biden-tries-to-erase-the-thousands-we-left-behind-in-afghanistan/>

17. One of the most ambitious and costly components of the US-led war in Afghanistan was the development of national security forces.

Source= <https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/middle-east/afghanistan-us-security-force-lose-war-b1929289.html>

18. Many people have drawn parallels between America's failure in Afghanistan and the Vietnam War. However, the comparison to Vietnam is unjust. The United States got involved in Vietnam to combat the communist threat to Southeast Asia. In 1955, President Dwight D. Eisenhower framed the communist threat to Vietnam as part of a larger regional menace. He predicted that a communist win in Vietnam would lead to communist takeovers in other Southeast Asian countries, with governments falling like dominoes.

Source= <https://www.wsj.com/articles/failure-afghanistan-worse-vietnam-saigon-nixon-biden-11633121520>

19. Government sources reported yesterday night that several of the animals evacuated out of Kabul by a former Royal Marine were sick with diseases that could be transmitted to people. Following his operation in August to rescue 173 cats and dogs from the Nowzad animal sanctuary as Afghanistan's capital city fell to the Taliban, some accused Paul "Pen" Farthing of "costing lives."

Source= https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-10052955/Animals-airlifted-Kabul-Pen-Farthing-infected-pass-disease-humans.html?ns\_mchannel=rss&ns\_campaign=1490&ito=1490