

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of sharia law

1. Taliban gunmen kill two people for listening to music during a wedding party. The human rights violation continues under the Taliban and the aggressive nature of the terrorists is clearly visible.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/Hashtagelyoum/status/1454512145392091143>
2. Taliban's Ministry of Finance spokesperson Ahmad Wali Haqmal said human rights to be respected in Afghanistan under Islamic law, but will not include LGBT+ rights. "LGBT... That's against our Sharia law," he said.
Source: <https://news.trust.org/item/20211029082858-jijlg/>
3. Aamaj News reported that Taliban blew up the tomb of Azizullah Karwan, the former commander of CIA-backed NDS 01 Unit in Paktika province. Mr Karwan was killed in an attack in Kabul three years ago and was buried in Argon, Paktika
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/Natsecjeff/status/1454510575069929476>
4. Attacks by Islamic State Khorasan (ISIS-K) in Afghanistan have become more deadly since the withdrawal of NATO forces, with at least 346 civilians killed by the group since late August.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/SkyNews/status/1454081124788015107>
5. After Taliban seized power thousands of Afghan girls and women shut out of high schools and universities. Trying hard to seek alternative ways to secure education.
Source: https://time.com/6108604/afghanistan-female-students-online/?utm_source=twitter&utm_medium=social&utm_campaign=editorial&utm_term=world_&linkId=137693710
6. The Taliban forcing Afghan farmers to pay so-called charity taxes on their land and harvests, citing Islamic law as justification.
Source: <https://gandhara.rferl.org/a/taliban-charity-tax-afghan-farmers/31535773.html>

Human Rights under Taliban

1. According to Human Rights Watch (HRW), Taliban officials in Afghanistan's provinces are enforcing even tighter regulations than those proclaimed by the group's leaders in Kabul, while frequently ignoring the scant rights protections they had established themselves.
Source: <https://gandhara.rferl.org/a/hrw-taliban-vice-rules-/31535148.html>

31th October 2021

2. Unidentified gunmen blew up the tomb of Azizullah Karwan, a former military commander in Paktika province. The incident took place around 7:00 pm today (Saturday, 8 Scorpio) in Argon Paktika district.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/Etilaatroz/status/1454510728350666760>
3. Tova Moradi, 83, an Afghan Jewish woman, the sole remnant of a centuries-old community fled Kabul this month with relatives to safeguard their lives after Taliban took over Afghanistan.
Source: <https://www.dailymail.co.uk/wires/ap/article-10144115/Woman-thought-Afghanistans-Jew-flees-country.html>
4. Dr. Sarwar Naderi, a medical practitioner in northern Badakhshan province's Keshm District, was brutally beaten and tortured by the Taliban.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/MrDawodZai/status/1453995147809763329>
5. Many Afghan families have been forced to push their young girls into marriage in exchange for money.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/dwnews/status/1454133679081484290>
6. “Bashir Ahmad from Andar of Ghazni, was an ANSF member. He was granted amnesty, but was arrested and disappeared by Taliban. His life is in danger, if he isn't killed already.”
Source: <https://twitter.com/MajeedQarar/status/1453848610697723907>
7. More and more video footage of forcefully displaced Hazara families emerge amidst Taliban's standard auto-denials of their involvement. The media also feels it's done with it. The int'l orgs have their own priorities/compulsions. Taliban knows it well.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/mSaleemJaved/status/1454485023055302660>
8. Afghan woman warned by Taliban not to drive again while taking her sick father to the doctor in Kabul.
Source: <https://twitter.com/Sidra1Khan/status/1453673171798855683>
9. Taliban officials in Afghanistan's provinces are using a manual that imposes rules harsher than the abusive policies announced by their leaders in Kabul.
Source: <https://www.hrw.org/news/2021/10/29/afghanistan-taliban-vice-handbook-abusive>

Current Situation

1. The Taliban called on the US and other countries on Saturday to recognise their government in Afghanistan.
Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/brecordernews/status/1454512173053587457>
2. A former US soldier claimed he brought at least 30 at-risk Afghans, including Christians, across the blocked Pakistan border and was attacked by the Taliban as a result of his actions.

Source: <https://www.foxnews.com/world/former-us-soldier-returns-afghanistan-rescues-christians-taliban>

3. According to the official Department of Homeland Security website, the Department of Homeland Security launched Operation Allies Welcome in early September "to support vulnerable Afghans, including those who have worked alongside us in Afghanistan for the past two decades, as they safely resettle in the United States," which led to the implementation of the placement programme.

Source: https://cruxnow.com/cns/2021/10/afghan-family-now-in-u-s-describes-last-days-in-kabul-hopes-for-future/?utm_medium=twitter&utm_source=dlvr.it

4. Following the Taliban's takeover, experts are concerned about the future of Afghanistan's ancient monuments and riches.

Source: <https://www.ancient-origins.net/news-general/afghanistan-archaeological-treasures-001236>

5. According to the authorities, gunmen posing as Taliban assaulted a wedding in eastern Afghanistan to prevent music from being played, killing at least three people. On Saturday, Taliban government spokesperson Zabihullah Mujahid said two of the three assailants had been apprehended and denied they were operating on behalf of the Islamist organisation. "Last night, during the wedding of Haji Malang Jan in the Nangarhar hamlet of Shamspur Mar Ghundi, three guys who announced themselves as Taliban entered the proceedings and [requested] that the music cease playing," he claimed.

Source: https://www.theguardian.com/world/2021/oct/30/gunmen-kill-at-least-three-at-afghan-wedding-to-stop-music-being-played?utm_source=dlvr.it&utm_medium=twitter

6. China builds on its cautious policy to Afghanistan, with focus on maintaining communication with the Taliban while strengthening itself against future threats from the country, without committing significant economic or security support to the war-torn country.

Source: <https://gandhara.rferl.org/a/taliban-foreign-aid-pakistan-inflation-haqqani/31535961.html>

7. The Taliban's spokesperson, Zabihullah Mujahid, told Fars News Agency that the Tehran conference was productive. The conference was held on Wednesday in the presence of foreign ministers from Afghanistan's neighbouring nations. "It was a nice meeting between Tehran and Afghanistan's neighbours," he remarked. "The Taliban expects this and other such talks to result in cooperation with Afghans and moves to recognise the Taliban so that we may interact with the world, our neighbours, and the region as a responsible party."

Source: https://www.tehrantimes.com/news/466502/Tehran-meeting-was-positive-Taliban-spokesman?utm_source=dlvr.it&utm_medium=twitter

8. Afghan youth are being slaughtered by a terrorist organization, which is now running the government over listening to music.
Source: <https://tribune.com.pk/story/2327093/1>
9. As Afghanistan enters a new great game, Pakistan's establishment and terrorists are attempting to trap India in a three-front conflict scenario. It is up to India to strike a careful balance between home security and international policy, according to experts.
Source: As Afghanistan enters a new great game, Pakistan's establishment and terrorists are attempting to trap India in a three-front conflict scenario. It is up to India to strike a careful balance between home security and international policy, according to experts.
Source: https://www.tehrantimes.com/news/466502/Tehran-meeting-was-positive-Taliban-spokesman?utm_source=dlvr.it&utm_medium=twitter
10. "More than 20 Taliban insurgents were killed and their tanks destroyed in last night's battle in Rokha district of Isa Khel village."
Source: <https://twitter.com/masoudShoaib/status/1454049315605856256>
11. The immediate Afghan evacuation due to the Taliban's resurgence in Afghanistan hit the US immigration and resettlement system. With almost thousands of Afghans are still on US military bases.
Source: <https://www.vox.com/22728486/afghanistan-evacuation-us-military-bases-refugee-resettlement-fort-bliss-fort-pickett>
12. Education Cannot Wait (ECW), Director Yasmine Sherif while working for children's rights in Afghanistan said "Schools are safe protective learning spaces, esp. in crises. All children have the right to education - boys & girls. Female educators are key to any child's education."
Source: <https://twitter.com/EduCannotWait/status/1454090970820132880>
13. "Pakistan to install 400 Pakistanis in different ministries and governor houses under the Taliban." This will enable Pakistan to take charge of running Afghanistan's government machinery. Beyond doubt, a full-fledged Pakistani invasion of Afghanistan.
Source: <https://twitter.com/HabibKhanT/status/1453963253785137160>
14. Cultural invasion of Afghanistan continues as Pakistani proxy Taliban continues to release official statements in Urdu.
Source: <https://twitter.com/HabibKhanT/status/1453967723029950469>
15. As the world waits for a probable new surge of Afghan refugees to reach Europe following Kabul's fall, vulnerable Afghans already on the EU's border face rising uncertainty.
Source: <https://www.euractiv.com/section/non-discrimination/news/bosnia-afghans-stuck-in-limbo-on-bosnia-croatia-border/>

31th October 2021