

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of Sharia Law

1. Shia's under Taliban rule are facing acute crisis. According to the Shia family, the conflict has not yet ended for them. Their father was killed in a recent bombing in a Shia mosque in Kandahar. IS-K claimed responsibility for the attack. He was the family's breadwinner, and they are now unsure where their next meal will come from in Afghanistan.

Source: <https://twitter.com/BBCYaldaHakim/status/1462110556891066368>

2. New sentence of Taliban terrorist group to the media: 1. Do not publish series in which women have played a role. 2. The publication of satirical and comedy programs is prohibited. 3. The publication of films and videos with a female role is prohibited.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462430241515782159>

3. *Unknown men" of Taliban regime beat journalist Basir Ahmadi. Mr Ahmadi is in hospital for head injuries.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462417016409759753>

Human Rights under Taliban

1. According to the Taliban's deputy spokesman, Germany and the Netherlands will pay the salaries of male and female education and health-care workers in Afghanistan. Many have been working without pay for months.

Source: <https://twitter.com/RichardEngel/status/1461943346604224512>

2. Taliban terror regime has summoned afg media, including tolonews, and has ordered to avoid inviting critical voices to their shows and make their shows aligned with taliban propaganda.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462401296636514309>

3. In Daikundi province, Hazara people are still being forcibly displaced from their land and homes. Fears of famine among individuals, particularly for forcibly relocated families, as the Taliban prohibits reportage on Hazara ethnic cleansing.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462385745088421888>

4. Two Taliban terror regime officials (Z. Mujahid and their self-proclaimed minister of vice prevention) have threatened the media with repercussions if they continue to allow access to voices critical of the Taliban, such as professor Jalali.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462378133638848513>

5. A female teacher in Afghanistan, who lost her job after the Taliban takeover, now polishing shoes & weeping.

Source: <https://twitter.com/MrDawodZai/status/1462067812466372609>

6. In Sarkh Kotel, Cheshmeh Sher, the Taliban completely destroyed this village, set homes on fire, and ordered residents to flee the area; after the residents were unable to provide food and supplies to the Taliban forces, the residents were forced to flee.

Source: <https://twitter.com/S7RZ/status/1462022708338831361>

Current Situation

1. Professor Faizullah Jalal, who yesterday harshly blasted Taliban terrorists, was assassinated just seconds ago. Several bullets were alleged to have struck his automobile, but he was unharmed.

Source: <https://twitter.com/FrenkieMark/status/1462161747352162311>

2. Afghan women's youth development soccer squad members landed in the United Kingdom early Thursday after being flown in from Pakistan with the help of a New York rabbi, Premier League club Leeds United, and Kim Kardashian West. A jet hired by the reality star landed at Stansted Airport near London, carrying more than 30 adolescent participants and their families, totaling roughly 130 people. Before beginning their new life in Britain, the players would be quarantined for ten days due to the coronavirus.

Source: <https://www.espn.in/football/leeds-united/story/4523900/kim-kardashian-west-helps-fly-afghanistan-womens-team-to-safety-in-london>

3. US Secretary of State Antony J. Blinken reclassified Pakistan as a country of particular concern (CPC) for breaching religious freedom, as well as reclassifying the Taliban as a particular concern entity.

Source: <https://www.dawn.com/news/1658739/pakistan-taliban-violators-of-religious-freedom-us>

4. A Message from an Afghan Student to the World's Rich Countries and Leaders: We're collecting plastic bags and sticks to provide food for ourselves and our families while you celebrate International Children's Day.

Source: <https://twitter.com/ziaryaad/status/1462286807975043072>

5. UN Afghanistan chief touches a fundamental issue in her UNSC briefing that "the Taliban must decide on whether to govern according to the needs and the rights of the diverse Afghan population, or whether to rule on the basis of a narrow ideology and an even narrower ethnic base."

Source: <https://twitter.com/LNajafizada/status/1461159062448525314>

6. According to the Taliban's purging commission, eliminating some groups, particularly those sympathetic to resistance (he refers to Hazara, Tajik, and Uzbek), is a priority for the terror regime's survival. Terrorists in the Taliban do not place a high premium on preventing starvation.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462097280593539078>

7. Kabul residents say that the price of food and fuel has risen in recent years, with a bag of flour costing 1,700 Afs (about $18 dollars) and now costing 2,400 Afs ($27 dollars).

Source: <https://twitter.com/PaykMedia/status/1462286856574230538>

8. "The city of Jalalabad's airstrip is equipped to receive both internal and foreign flights... The Islamic Republic of Iran will shortly send humanitarian relief through the Jalalabad airfield, according to the authorities "According to the statement. All technical and security difficulties that were preventing the airfield's operation have been rectified, according to the governor's office.

Source: <https://www.indiablooms.com/world-details/SA/32248/airfield-in-afghanistan-s-jalalabad-ready-to-receive-humanitarian-aid-from-iran-governor.html>

9. Taliban's persecution of Shiites in Afghanistan continues; here in Sarkh Kotel, Cheshmeh Sher, the Taliban completely destroyed this village, set homes on fire, and ordered residents to flee the area; after the residents were unable to provide food and supplies to the Taliban forces, the residents were forced to flee.

Source: <https://twitter.com/S7RZ/status/1462022708338831361>

10. Iran and Afghanistan have set up committees to increase cooperation between the two countries in various sectors such as agriculture, railways, trade etc. the committees were established during the visit of Iran's special envoy to Afghanistan.

Source: <https://www.aninews.in/news/world/asia/afghanistan-iran-form-joint-committees-to-strengthen-ties-ramp-up-economic-growth20211119193705>

11. Ahmad Wali Massoud: The Resistance Front has nuclear weapons in all provinces of Afghanistan and will expand its activities in the near future.

Source: <https://twitter.com/KarimAmini1/status/1461965964837326848>

12. Mansoor Ahmad Khan, Pakistan's ambassador to Afghanistan, justified Pakistan's active involvement with the Taliban leadership in Kabul on topics of "inclusivity, counter-terrorism, human rights, and averting humanitarian disasters." Ambassador Khan made the comments in an interview with Dawn.com a few days after a high-level Afghan delegation conducted a three-day visit to Islamabad, the first by Taliban ministers and senior officials since the Taliban took control of Kabul in mid-August.

Source:

https://www.dawn.com/news/1659397?utm_source=dlvr.it&utm_medium=twitter

13. Taliban officials in Herat claimed detention of several people for various criminal charges including selling alcohol.

Source: <https://twitter.com/Natsecjeff/status/1462455983830188035>

14. High-level delegations from Afghanistan and Turkmenistan held an important meeting in Herat Province on economic and security cooperation, in addition to the TAPI project.

Source: <https://twitter.com/IDTV13/status/1462452888920338432>

15. The situation in Afghanistan is deteriorating, posing a risk of drug trafficking and uncontrolled migration. In an interview with the Rossiiskaya Gazeta daily, Deputy Secretary of the Russian Security Council Alexander Grebenkin stated that the situation does not provide grounds for hope. "We are constantly monitoring the situation in Afghanistan since the Taliban, an international terrorist organisation that is banned in Russia, seized power there. Regrettably, it provides no reason to be optimistic" he stated

Source: https://tass.com/politics/1364313?utm_source=dlvr.it&utm_medium=twitter

16. Taliban has announced that it had started paying government employees who had been without pay since the Islamist organisation seized power in Kabul in August. A huge financial crisis ensued as a result of the acquisition. "Starting today, we will begin paying salaries. We'll cover three months' worth of wages" At a press briefing, Finance Ministry spokesman Ahmad Wali Haqmal remarked. The payment will be made through the banking system of the country. However, it is uncertain whether the monies will reach those in need.

Source: <https://www.dw.com/en/afghanistan-taliban-to-start-paying-public-employees/a-5989058>

17. US Secretary of State Antony J. Blinken reclassified Pakistan as a country of particular concern (CPC) for breaching religious freedom, as well as reclassifying the Taliban as a particular concern entity.

Source: <https://www.dawn.com/news/1658739/pakistan-taliban-violators-of-religious-freedom-u>