

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of sharia law

1. Taliban terrorist compares Afghan Star & achievements of last 20 years to prostitution which should be wiped out & replaced with Taliban Islamic achievements.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1460689773719343108>

2. Terrorists from the Taliban are enforcing severe Sharia Law across Afghanistan. There is no central authority or government; each Talib serves as a police officer, prosecutor, and judge. He makes the decision on how to cope with his opponent!

Source: <https://twitter.com/rahmanrahmanee/status/1461350700391170065>

3. Do not publish series in which women have played a role. 2. The publication of satirical and comedy programs is prohibited. 3. The publication of films and videos with a female role is prohibited. These are the harsh rules that the Taliban is imposing on women.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462430241515782159>

Human Rights under Taliban

1. Taliban officials in Afghanistan are intimidating journalists and implementing draconian new media limits that disproportionately hurt women. Taliban intelligence officials have threatened journalists with execution if they criticise the Taliban, and journalists must submit all reports for permission before they are published. The Vice and Virtue Ministry has issued new guidelines dictating how female journalists should dress on television and prohibiting soap operas and entertainment shows with female actors.

Source: <https://www.indiablooms.com/world-details/SA/32310/afghanistan-taliban-crackdown-on-media-worsens-warns-hrw.html>

2. Committee to Protect Journalists said that the Taliban must conduct a comprehensive investigation into the recent attack on journalist Ahmad Baseer Ahmadi and do all possible to ensure the safety of journalists.

Source: <https://cpj.org/2021/11/journalist-ahmad-baseer-ahmadi-severely-beaten-in-afghanistan/>

3. Taliban has demolished houses belonging to Hazara residents of Balkhab, Sar-e-Pul province. The owners are not even given the chance to relocate their household belongings.

Source: <https://twitter.com/mSaleemJaved/status/1463591310808559618>

4. Afghanistan, the country is "on the verge of a humanitarian disaster," and the international community should find methods to help the Afghan people, who "feel abandoned." According to Deborah Lyons, an estimated 60% of Afghanistan's 38 million people are facing food insecurity, which will certainly grow over the winter.

Source: <https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2021/11/18/un-envoy-warns-afghanistan-at-risk-of-extremism-as-crisis-deepens>

5. Afghanistan asked the US Congress for the release of Afghanistan's frozen assets by the US government as the country is facing a financial crisis.

Source: <https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/world/south-asia/afghanistan-asks-us-congress-to-release-funds-amid-financial-crisis/articleshow/87757363.cms>

6. Taliban terror regime has summoned Afghanistan media, including TOLONews, and has ordered to avoid inviting critical voices to their shows and make their shows aligned with Taliban propaganda.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/146240129663651430>

7. We're collecting plastic bags and sticks to provide food for ourselves and our families while you celebrate International Children's Day. Afghan students are also suffering under the oppressive Taliban regime.

Source: <https://twitter.com/ziaryaad/status/1462286807975043072>

8. Kabul residents say that the price of food and fuel has risen in recent years, with a bag of flour costing 1,700 Afs (about $18 dollars) and now costing 2,400 Afs ($27 dollars).

Source: <https://twitter.com/PaykMedia/status/1462286856574230538>

Current Situation

1. According to Pakistani sources quoted by Russia's Tass news agency, the TAPI project, which involves the transfer of Turkmen gas to Afghanistan, Pakistan, and India, has been halted due to the situation in Afghanistan.

Source: <https://twitter.com/sw989fm/status/1464156153508675584>

2. Taliban has announced that it had started paying government employees who had been without pay since the Islamist organisation seized power in Kabul in August. A huge financial crisis ensued as a result of the acquisition. "Starting today, we will begin paying salaries. We'll cover three months' worth of wages "At a press briefing, Finance Ministry spokesman Ahmad Wali Haqmal remarked. The payment will be made through the banking system of the country. However, it is uncertain whether the monies will reach those in need.

Source: https://www.dw.com/en/afghanistan-taliban-to-start-paying_public-employees/a-5989058

3. Afghanistan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs spokesman Abdul Qahar Balkhi. "We are trying our best with the conditions we find ourselves in," Qahar Balkhi said of the country's humanitarian catastrophe, which the IEA inherited from the previous government.

Source: <https://twitter.com/PakAnalyst/status/1463917499301380097>

4. Afghanistan's decision-makers have called on the international community to recognize their government as the country faces both a severe economic and a humanitarian crisis.

Source: <https://twitter.com/aneews/status/1461741067598843904>

5. Pakistan would provide professional training to Afghanistan's aviation professionals in areas such as security, traffic control, firefighting, air forecasting, and airport administration. The bilateral agreement was signed during the visit of Afghanistan's foreign minister Amir Khan Motaqi to Pakistan, according to Khaama Press.

Source: https://www.business-standard.com/article/international/pakistan-to-provide-training-to-afghanistan-s-aviation-staff-report-121111700432_1.html

6. Germany has dispatched high-ranking diplomats to Kabul to meet with the Taliban. According to a statement from the German Foreign Ministry, the country's special representative for Afghanistan, Jasper Wieck, and ambassador-designate Markus Potzel met with high-ranking Taliban officials on November 18. Emiel de Bont, a Dutch special representative, accompanied the delegation.

Source: <https://gandhara.rferl.org/a/germany-afghanistan-taliban-/31568884.html>

7. Pakistan and China are making efforts for the Taliban government to have a soft landing . China also urged IMP and World Bank to resume cooperation with Afghanistan.

Source: <https://www.aninews.in/news/world/asia/china-urges-imf-wb-to-resume-cooperation-with-afghanistan20211118213441/>

8. India announced that it is ready to deliver urgent humanitarian aid to the people of Afghanistan, including food grains and medicines, citing the fact that Afghanistan has seen a lot of bloodshed and violence in recent years and is in desperate need of help.

Source: <https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/news/india/ready-to-deliver-urgent-grain-medicines-to-afghanistan-india/articleshow/87790682.cms>

9. Under the so-called emirate of Taliban, which stands for drug trading, child molestation, woman hating, the Hazara Massacre, and ethnic cleansing of minorities, Taliban beat a boy with cable because he "stole a loaf of bread."

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1461473917219086339>

10. Taliban officials in Herat claimed detention of several people for various criminal charges including selling alcohol.

Source: <https://twitter.com/Natsecjeff/status/1462455983830188035>

11. According to the Taliban's purging commission, eliminating some groups, particularly those sympathetic to resistance (he refers to Hazara, Tajik, and Uzbek), is a priority for the terror regime's survival. Terrorists in the Taliban do not place a high premium on preventing starvation.

27nd November 2021

Source: <https://twitter.com/AfgFactChecks/status/1462097280593539078>